Introduction

Thank you for purchasing one or more of our KARMA-fied Combi Collections for the Korg Karma Workstation! These collections of high quality, new and original Combis contain a wide variety of styles, ranging from a mixture of dance categories to rock to jazz to ambient pads and special FX. Each Combi uses all four available KARMA Modules for maximum sonic possibilities, and to demonstrate the power and potential of multiple GE's.

Factory Programs Required

All four Karma-Lab Sound Sets are Combi data only collections (no new Program data is included). Each Combi relies on the Korg Karma Factory PRELOAD Program Data residing in Program Banks A, B and E to sound and play as intended. If you are not sure what's in your Karma, you should back it up first to a floppy, and then reload the Factory PRELOAD data from the original floppy before loading this collection.

Chemistry 2, Chemistry 3, and Reincarnation 1 also include new GE Data that must be loaded in order for the Combis to operate correctly. All three of them utilize some of the new GEs produced by Korg for the EXB 04 and 05 Expansion boards. The combis and GE Data are included in two different formats, depending on whether you use EXB04/05 or not (see below).

Creating Floppies For Downloaded Files

If you ordered the files on a floppy disk(s), skip this section and proceed directly to the next section "Installing Karma-Lab Combi Collections". You can also send the data via sysex from KARMA MW Software if you have it. Please see the document "Sending From KARMA MW.pdf" included with the downloaded KDF format files.

Preparing the files:

When you go to the download page that is sent to you via e-mail, there will be 2 different files available - one for Windows users (.zip), and one for Mac Users (.sit). Download the one that is appropriate for your system.

These files are compressed folders - you will need a decompression utility to open them. It is likely you already have experience doing this. The Windows standard is "Winzip," while the Mac standard is "Stuff-it." However, both Windows and Mac users can use Stuff-it Expander (free) to decompress the appropriate file. If you need a decompression utility, there is a link on the download page.

After decompressing the file, you will have a folder on your hard drive named according to the collection(s) you have purchased - for example, "chem12rein1" (indicating Chemistry 1 + 2 + Reincarnation 1).

Depending on the collection, there will be some additional folders containing .PCG file(s) and in most cases, .KGE files, as well as this document, and the User's Guides for the collections.

If you also ordered the KARMA MW/KARMA Triton Software format option, the download page will provide a link to download an additional file containing the KDF data corresponding to the collections you ordered.

Creating the floppy disk(s):

Now you need to put the required files onto floppy disk(s) for loading into your Karma:

- Format a new HD floppy on your Karma Music Workstation, using Disk Mode (1.3) [Utility]. Press [F8] UTILITY and select "Format." Press F8 (OK) again - you can use the "Quick Format" option. Press F8 (OK) again.

- After the disk(s) are formatted and ejected from the Karma, insert them into your computer. Copy (click and drag) the files that end in .PCG and .KGE to the floppy. Do not drag any folders or document files or KDF files to the floppy. For some collections, there will be two types of .PCG and .KGE data included: "for loading with EXB0405", and "for loading without EXB0405". You do not need all of the files if you know which way you will be loading the data (explained in the next section).

Installing Karma-Lab Combi Collections

IMPORTANT WARNING: it is always highly recommended to make a backup of the current contents of your Karma (Save PCG and Save User GE) before loading sounds, in case any error is made during the loading process.

All four Karma-Lab Combi Collections can be installed in your Karma Workstation at the same time, provided you do not wish to use the EXB04 and EXB05 Expansion Boards at the same time. Due to the 134 new GEs included with Chemistry 3 (and those previously included in Chemistry 2 and Reincarnation 1), it is not possible to load all four Combi Collections into the Korg Karma at the same time as the EXB04 and EXB05 Combis and GEs, nor can you load any collection containing Chemistry 3 at the same time as EXB04/05.

Therefore, installation instructions differ depending which collection you have purchased, and whether you intend to use the EXB04/05 GEs released previously by Korg, which fill up GE User Banks A, B, C, D, E and F (192 GEs). You might wish to have those GEs loaded if you have other sets that depend on their presence, such as the EXB04 or EXB05 Expansion board.

Chemistry 1, 2, 3 and Reincarnation also make use of some of the EXB04/05 GEs, but not very many (42 in total). Therefore, we are providing the .KGE and .PCG files in two different formats:

1. For use without the EXB04/05 Combis and GEs at the same time:

This allows you to load all four of Karma-Lab's sound sets at the same time - the 256 Combis may be loaded into any 2 Combi banks you decide, and the 42 EXB04/05 GEs used by our sound sets are included with our custom GEs.

2. For use with the EXB04/05 Combis and GEs at the same time:

This allows you to load Chemistry 1 (64 combis with no GEs) and the new bank of 64 Chemistry 3 Combis (128 new GEs), while still keeping EXB04/05 Combis in your Karma. You cannot load Chemistry 2 and Reincarnation at the same time, however. Alternately, you can load Chemistry 2 and Reincarnation 1 at the same time as EXB04/05, but not Chemistry 1 and 3.

This allows you to load Chemistry 1 + 2 and Reincarnation 1 (or various combinations of those 3 sets), while still keeping the EXB04/05 Combis in your Karma. Unfortunately, it is not possible to load Chemistry 3 at the same time as the EXB04/05 GEs - there are not enough GE slots. When you want to use Chemistry 3, or one of the packages containing Chemistry 3, you should follow the instructions for loading without EXB04/05.

In order to minimize the number of files (and resulting confusion), the sounds have been provided preconfigured to Bank C. By following the installation instructions in the next section, you can load them into any of the combi banks you choose.

Note: The instructions for loading with the EXB04/05 GEs assume you already have the 6 User Banks of GEs for EXB04/05 loaded into User Banks A, B, C, D, E, and F (from the 0405.KGE file that goes with the Expansion Boards). Our KGE files do not include those 6 banks, in case you have modified them in some way – we don't want to overwrite them. However, if they are not loaded, some of the combis in these packages will not work properly. If you need the 0405.KGE file, it can be downloaded from Korg USA at:

<http://www.korg.com/service/downloadinfo.asp?DID=351>

Please use the table on the next page to locate the correct installation instructions for the collections that you have purchased.

IMPORTANT WARNING: it is always highly recommended to make a backup of the current contents of your Karma (Save PCG and Save User GE) before loading sounds, in case any error is made during the loading process.

Note: The instructions for loading with the EXB04/05 GEs assume you already have the 6 User Banks of GEs for EXB04/05 loaded into User Banks A, B, C, D, E, and F (from the 0405.KGE file that goes with the Expansion Boards). Our KGE files do not include those 6 banks, in case you have modified them in some way – we don’t want to overwrite them.
